REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS¹

This case came before the Court for a plea hearing on November 16, 2021. Assistant United States Attorney Christina Mahy appeared and represented the Government, and James Fleisher appeared and represented Defendant. Defendant was present with counsel.

Prior to the hearing, the parties entered into a proposed binding plea agreement pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(C), which agreement has been filed of record. (Doc. #43). Under the terms of the plea agreement, Defendant agreed to plead guilty to Count 1 and Count 2 of the Indictment currently pending against him, both of which charge him with Coercion and Enticement, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §2422(b).

During the plea hearing, the undersigned had the opportunity to address Defendant in open court and to inform Defendant of all rights and privileges as set forth in Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(b)(1). Further, the undersigned carefully inquired of Defendant regarding his understanding of the agreement, as well as his competence to understand the agreement. Having fully inquired, the undersigned Judicial Officer finds that Defendant's tendered plea of guilty to Counts 1 and 2 as charged in the Indictment was knowing, intelligent, and voluntary. Additionally, based upon the statement of facts, which were read into the record and affirmed by Defendant, the undersigned finds that there is a sufficient factual basis for finding that Defendant is in fact guilty of Count 1 and Count 2 of the Indictment currently pending against him, both of which charge him with Coercion and Enticement, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §2422(b).

Based upon the foregoing, it is RECOMMENDED that the District Court accept Defendant's plea of guilty to Count 1 and Count 2 of the Indictment currently pending against him, both of which charge him with Coercion and Enticement, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §2422(b).

Pending the Court's acceptance of Defendant's guilty plea, Defendant has been referred to the Probation Department for a pre-sentence investigation and report.

NOTICE REGARDING OBJECTIONS

Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 59(b)(2), any party may serve and file specific, written objections to the proposed findings and recommendations within FOURTEEN days after being served with this Report and Recommendations. Such objections shall specify the portions of the Report objected to and shall be accompanied by a memorandum of law in support of the objections. If the Report and Recommendation is based in whole or in part upon matters occurring of record at an oral hearing, the objecting party shall promptly arrange for the transcription of the record, or such portions of it as all parties may agree upon or the Magistrate Judge deems sufficient, unless the assigned District Judge otherwise directs. A party may respond to another party's objections within FOURTEEN days after being served with a copy thereof.

Failure to make objections in accordance with this procedure may forfeit rights on appeal. See Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985); United States v. Walters, 638 F.2d 947, 949-50 (6th Cir. 1981).
